

Program Standards

Program Name:	Emergency Oxygen Administration
Intended Audience: Community and Workplace	Community and workplace lay rescuers
Prerequisites:	BLS/CPR (with or without AED) and Basic First Aid (may be taught concurrently)
ASHI-approved Training Materials:	Emergency Oxygen Administration student text (one per participant), Emergency Oxygen Administration Instructor Guide (one per Instructor).
Recommended Initial Instruction Time:	1½-3 hours
Recommended Renewal Time:	About half of Initial Instructional Time
Maximum Student-to-Instructor Ratio:	12:1
Student-to-Equipment Ratio	6:1 Student-to-Oxygen System
Successful Completion: (Certification)	Written exam: Recommended for designated responders <sup>21</sup> (70% or better). Performance Evaluation: Required for all (perform competently without assistance). 1. Demonstrate how to assemble an emergency oxygen system. 2. Demonstrate how to turn an emergency oxygen system on and off and determine if oxygen is flowing 3. Demonstrate how to safely and correctly integrate use of emergency oxygen when attending to a responsive victim who is breathing. 4. Demonstrate how to safely and correctly integrate use of emergency oxygen when attending to an unresponsive victim who is breathing. 5. Demonstrate how to safely and correctly integrate use of emergency oxygen when attending to an unresponsive victim who is not breathing (may be integrated into CPR performance evaluation)
Card Issued	Emergency Oxygen Administration certification card
Certification Period:	Up to 2 years. Recommended annually.
Note(s):	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Prepare for this program by researching the specific emergency oxygen system and delivery devices participants will be using. Be familiar with any state or local emergency oxygen administration regulations and policies</li><li>• Occupational regulatory or licensing agencies may require written tests, additional content, additional hours of instruction, or other practices.</li></ul>